A Stewardship Prayer

*Heavenly Father,
Strengthen us to answer your call to be disciples.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

It is my privilege and pleasure as Pastor to invite you to join the mission of Saint Pius the Tenth. Our mission is rooted in the universal call to holiness and strives to develop a deep and abiding friendship with our Lord, Jesus Christ, and our brothers and sisters in the Church.

I like that our mission is straight-forward and that it builds upon itself -- to Know, to Love, and to Serve the Lord. Our service flows from our love, and our love flows from our knowledge. I have found that we may work for someone because we are compassionate: however, the best service and the greatest sacrifices come only with the loyalty of love. But how can we love that which we don't know? True love is not blind, it is relational. Likewise, our commitment to Christ must be more than an emotional response. It must be based on knowledge of the truth of who He is. This knowledge comes through revelation and contemplation, prayer and study, time and experience.

Our mission to Know, to Love, and to Serve not only builds upon itself, but builds community as it helps us all to grow to full stature in Christ. It is my hope that your commitment to our ministries at Saint Pius the Tenth will deepen your knowledge and confirm your belief in the love God has for us all, and you will make a disciple's response of love overflowing into service. I am convinced that God is calling each of us to be stewards of this mission, and I am excited to see how the mission will be manifested in and through our lives in the years ahead.

Be assured of my gratitude and prayers for I am

Fraternally yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Monsignor Marcaccio". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Reverend Monsignor Anthony Marcaccio, V.F.

ABOUT OUR PARISH

From its inception, our parish of St. Pius X has always maintained its character as a mission parish. In 1954, Monsignor Hugh A. Dolan, then Pastor of St. Benedict's Parish and Bishop Vincent S. Waters of the Raleigh Diocese, purchased 14.2 acres of land at the northeast corner of North Elm Street and East Cornwallis Drive. At the time, this was the edge of the city and Elm Street was unpaved north of Cornwallis. Our Catholic school, named in honor of Pope Pius X who was canonized the year before, was built on the new grounds and opened in 1955. St. Pius X School and its chapel operated as a mission of St. Benedict's Church until July 15, 1960 when we became an independent parish of the Raleigh Diocese.

Monsignor Dolan was an active community leader, communicating the church's message in print and through local media outlets, striving to better the lives of the poor and less fortunate. He helped lead our community as an early proponent of racial equality and ecumenical values.

In 1975, Monsignor Lawrence Newman, a strong advocate of Catholic education, succeeded Monsignor Dolan. He was followed in 1977 by Monsignor William Pharr, who led efforts to build a church so that the community would no longer worship in the school chapel, a space under the current Alumni Auditorium. Father George Kloster assumed leadership of our Parish in 1979, remaining until 1988. The successful parish spiritual renewal program called Jubilee and our international cooperation with a mission in Peru began during his pastorate. While adapted somewhat, these vibrant ministries continue to this day.

Following Father George, Father Frank Cintula was named pastor from 1988 until 1990. He was succeeded by four years of Franciscan pastoral leadership. The Franciscan Center in downtown Greensboro also began at this time. The parish returned to diocesan leadership with Father Frank Connolly's pastorate from 1994 until July 2000. During this time, a parish center and the middle school wing were added to the campus. The athletic center was also constructed and named for Father Frank Connolly.

Monsignor Anthony Marcaccio began his pastorate here in 2000 and has led the parish during a time of unprecedented growth and activity. Since his arrival, endowments have been established for the parish and the school. St. Pius X was the first parish to achieve one million dollars in endowments in the Diocesan Foundation. The parish purchased the rectory on North Elm Street and the Columbarium and bell tower were constructed in 2006.

In order to accommodate the increased mass attendance, we began the capital campaign "To Make a Place at the Table," resulting in our new church and chapel, which were dedicated on April 17, 2010 by Bishop Peter Jugis. The school building was also renovated at the same time to tie the entire campus together aesthetically.

Having completed the church and the cloister, the parish turned its focus to building a beautiful, large space for activities, ministries and administration. This phase also included a long-awaited addition to the school campus for Pre-k as well as state of the art early education classrooms. The capital campaign, "Making a Place to Gather and Grow," successfully funded the Simmons Parish Center and the DeJoy Early Education Building, playground renovations and the Parr Amphitheater. The parish achieved these goals while simultaneously being a lead parish for the first-ever diocesan capital campaign. Over the years, our parish has received international recognition for our stewardship efforts and capital campaigns. In 2015, the Holy Year of Divine Mercy, our parish was designated as one of the special places of pilgrimage for our diocese.

ST. PIUS X CATHOLIC CHURCH

In 2015, St. Pius X School celebrated its 60th anniversary of faith-based education and the parish school is flourishing today with the highest enrollment for a Catholic elementary school outside the city of Charlotte. In 2023, the Lemnios Pavilion was completed on the campus and plans are currently under way to provide an artificial turf athletic field. Ministries in and of the parish continue to grow, as well as our participation in community efforts which promote our mission of good will among the people of Greensboro.

ST. PIUS X

1835-1914

Giuseppe Sarto was born in Venetia, Italy. Ordained a priest at the age of twenty-three, he spent seventeen years in parish ministry until named Bishop in 1884. In 1893, he was named Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice. In 1903 he was elected as Pope and chose the name Pius and the papal motto: "To Restore All Things in Christ." Pope Pius X encouraged frequent communion and admitted children from the age of seven to its reception. He promoted the use of Gregorian chant in church music and brought about the reform of Canon Law. In 1954, he was canonized before an enormous crowd at St. Peter's. Although born in abject poverty, he enriched the Church through his treasure of faith.

STEWARDSHIP AT ST. PIUS X

WHAT IS STEWARDSHIP?

Stewardship is recognizing that everything we are, and everything we have, are gifts from God. We are called to be grateful and generous with those gifts. God reveals His perfect and infinite love for us most visibly in His Son, Jesus Christ. A steward makes God's love visible by imitating Jesus.

God needs nothing and is self-sufficient in every way, but He still wants us to Know, Love, and Serve Him. We do not participate as stewards for our own benefit. Stewardship is a lifestyle that involves submitting ourselves completely to God as an act of heartfelt worship. All of this is a privilege given to us by God to nurture a life integrated in Him. Stewardship is defined as the practice of God's presence in all that we do.

In the US Bishop's Pastoral Letter (1992) we are each called to be Intentional Disciples, living our lives as good stewards of the Faith. This call requires a conscious decision to follow Jesus Christ. By making this commitment, we are transforming ourselves - not just through a series of actions, but by demonstrating a way of life that honors God in all we do.

*Whatever you do, do it enthusiastically,
as something done for the Lord and not for men, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.*

Colossians 3:23-24

Our mission is to educate and nurture students to develop children of faith, compassion, and intellect who are committed to independent thinking and service to others. We provide a joyful learning environment that allows each child to grow in grace, intellect, and individuality. We serve students from Pre-K (3 years old) through 8th grade.
